ST. ILLUMINATOR'S CATHEDRAL PRESENTS
CHECK FOR RELIEF FUND

Rev. Fr. Mesrob Lakissian, pastor of St. Illuminator's Cathedral, presents a check for $7,600 to Archbishop Oshagan for the Fund for Syrian Armenian Relief. The monies were raised by the Cathedral parish through fundraising events and the special plate offerings contributed during the month of September.

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to the parishioners and friends of the St. Illuminator's Cathedral for their generous donations

Last week Rev. Fr. Mesrob Lakissian visited the Holy Martyrs Armenian Church to meet the newly appointed pastor, Rev. Fr. Abraham Malkhasyan

Mrs. Tacuhi Gyulian, born on September 14, 1936 in Bucharest, Romania, passed away on September 30, 2012 at the age of 76. Funeral services took place at the Edward Lynch Funeral Home. Interment service was held at the Cedar Grove Cemetery on October 2, 2012.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to her husband, Mr. Garabed Gyulian, and daughters Manik Dikranian and Anna Artounian and their families.

72 HOLY DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

This Saturday, October 6, the Armenian Church commemorates the 72 Holy Disciples of Christ. The reference comes from the Gospel of Luke (Chapter 10, Verse 1): “After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go.” (Note: Some sources say 72 disciples; others say 70). These disciples remained true to the Lord and their calling, and spread the Gospel. They were not random choices, but rather true disciples whose labors carried the message of the Lord throughout the Roman Empire and beyond. All of the saints are remembered individually in the liturgical calendar of the church, but this day is set aside to remember them collectively.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER FEAST OF THE HOLY CROSS
THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK
(11:27-33)

Again they came to Jerusalem. As He was walking in the temple, the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders came to Him and said, “By what authority are you doing these things? Who gave you this authority to do them? Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question, answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven or was it of human origin? Answer me.” They argued with one another, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ But shall we say, ‘Of human origin?’ – they were afraid of the crowd, for all regarded John as truly a prophet.

So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And Jesus said to them, “neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Harkelee Der Mesrob,

So much time has passed since you wrote me your prayerful note, a note that touched my heart deeply. Thank you for your prayers and for taking the time to express thoughts that, to this day, continue to inspire and strengthen me. I felt cared for and shepherded through your pastoral presence, a revelation of God's love for one of His flock, a reminder that I matter.

Thank you, Der Hayr, for keeping me in your prayers.
With deep respect and appreciation for your kindness and humility and most especially your pastoral presence in my life,
